Dear Miss Goldberg:

Recently I received a letter from Mr. Milne of Oxford asking for casts of coins of Colophon in United States' collections and for any further help regarding the coins of this city which I might be able to give him. You will recall, perhaps, that while I was in Athens in 1922-23 I listed the coins of the first dig on this site. I kept a carbon of the list made, and I am wondering whether there could be any objection to my putting this information at his disposal.

Can you tell me whether the coins are still at the School? as I very much fear that this list will be of very little service unless he can obtain casts of the coins.

If it would be simpler for you to telephone me with regard to this rather than to write, please do not hesitate to do this.

Very truly yours,

20th December, 1928

Miss Betty Goldman,
New York City

Dear Miss Goldman:

Herewith I take pleasure in sending you the copy of my notes on the coins of the first Colophon dig. I am a bit sceptical as to some of my readings, as at that time I had not had any too much experience with Asia Minor coins. I imagine, however, this will not have such significance for you as it will for Professor Milne, to whom I am also sending a copy, as I explained to you.

I am wondering if Mr. Newell ever spoke to you about becoming a Fellow of the American Numismatic Society? Recently, Miss Richter and Mrs. Hopkin have been enrolled as fellows, and we should be very glad if you could see your way clear to accepting this invitation. The annual dues are only $15.00, and you would receive our publications as a partial return. I hope this suggestion will appeal to you.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

My dear Mr. Ne,-

I have just had your letter accompanying the account of Celsophor crises - again in hand and see that I did not answer your query concerning the Society. It will give me great pleasure to become a Fellow of your society or to receive your publications to lighten my darkness in matters etc.

Yours
Coward

Very cordially,

Hetty Goldsmid

Dear Miss Goldman:

Thank you for your letter of the 19th. Your name will be presented at the next meeting of the Council, and I will inform you of their unquestionably confirmative action after that date.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
